

QUIZ 7

ENGLISH 2110 / 09 ⊗ MR. HAGIN ⊗ KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY ⊗ SPRING 2006

Print these pages and write your answers in the spaces provided OR type your answers on your own paper. If you choose to type your answers, be sure to label your answers clearly and adhere to the length restrictions.

Please submit original work. Cite all sources (texts, coursepackets, class summaries, or outside references). You will not receive credit for this quiz if another student's answers match yours verbatim (in whole or in part).

Good luck! Contact Mr. Hagin if you have further questions.

READINGS COVERED:

⊗ Osiris, Isis, and Horus

PART 1: SHORT ANSWER (3 POINTS EACH)

For questions 1-3 below, develop a 2-3-sentence response. Base your answers on the assigned readings.

OSIRIS, ISIS, AND HORUS

1. Why does Set become evil-minded?

OSIRIS, ISIS, AND HORUS

2. Why does Isis say, "Although I am a woman, I have become like a man [...]"?

OSIRIS, ISIS, AND HORUS

3. What is Set's argument in favor of the crown?

PART 2: PARAGRAPH ANSWER (5 POINTS)

Develop a paragraph response that address the question. Limit yourself to writing no more than one page, whether you are hand writing or typing your response.

Why do the Ennead tell Horus to refrain from harpooning Set at the end of the story?
Why does Horus ignore the Ennead's command?