Legend has it...

In medieval times a sisterhood of women met secretly to educate and enlighten one another. Their bond was symbolized by an owl, a symbol of wisdom from the Greek goddess Athena. This ancient tradition of women empowering women continues today within the membership of The WISE Society – a society dedicated to empowering women of vision.