COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Anthropology is the study of humans. This course provides an introduction to the subject matter of anthropology by 1), examining the evolution of human biology and behavior and 2), comparing the social organization of contemporary human societies.

TESTS:
1. There will be three tests each worth one-third of your final grade.
2. Tests are not cumulative.
3. Tests are comprised of multiple choice, matching, and map questions.
4. Test dates are listed in the agenda.
5. If you arrive late for a test you will be required to take a makeup test pending approval by the professor.
6. You are not allowed to leave the room during a test.
7. Non-native speakers of English may use a translation dictionary (book only) during tests after letting me see it first. Electronic translation dictionaries are not allowed during tests.
8. Students are not allowed to answer or look at phones or other electronic devices during a test.
9. Wearing a hat is not allowed during tests.

MAKEUP TESTS
1. Failure to take a test at the specified time results in a grade of zero for the test.
2. Failure to take the third test on the specified date will result in a grade of zero for the third test.
3. A grade of zero on a test will result in a final grade of "F" for the course.
4. Makeup tests are given at the professor’s discretion, are based on merit, and must be approved by the professor.
5. All makeup tests will be given immediately following the third test. It is the student’s responsibility to remind the professor during the last week of classes that they need to take a makeup exam.
6. A grade of incomplete (I) will not be given due to failure to take or make up a test.
7. There are no retakes of tests.
8. Extra credit assignments are not available in this course.
9. A failing grade in this course is not open to negotiation. I do not "give" grades, you are assigned the grade you have earned based on your test scores.
